

NEW REGULATION FOR INBOUND SHIPMENTS TO P.R. CHINA

The Chinese Customs Authorities have announced strict enforcement of regulations for import carrier manifest that will become effective from 1st of June, 2018.

This means that we must have full details for shipper and consignee:

Including:

- VAT number of shipper, Chinese business registrations number of consignee (USCC) and telephone contact number for both parties
- Description of goods must be specific and correct

Failure to comply with these new regulations could result in rejection of the transported goods upon arrival and either destruction or return of the goods to origin.
